

Communications Whole Class Project for Wednesday, March 09, 2011

Today, we are making a field guide. Every person in the class must contribute to the guide or everyone will receive a zero.

A field guide can include information on the following:

- weather
- terrain
- natural shelter
- food
- other

You must organize and compile the book within the class period. Be sure to hit all of the following:

- an amazing cover for your book
- table of contents
- pages that include quotes, illustrations and descriptions
- Be sure to include page numbers for your quotes.
- Be neat. Be loyal. Be sparkly where appropriate.

Please organize your book in a way that makes sense.
