

Welcome to English 9 Honors
Mrs. Krieger
Room 416

Goals: To become stronger readers, writers and thinkers; to become stronger communicators; to develop an appreciation of great literature.

Rules:

1. Be on time.
2. If you are absent, you must see me before school on the morning you return. You can find me in either 416 or the English Office. All missed work must be made up the day you return. If you are out multiple days, then you will have extra time to make up your work.
3. Be polite; be diligent; be prepared.
4. Challenge yourself and your classmates.

Supplies:

You will be expected to maintain a 3-ring binder throughout the year. The binder will be used to store study guides and handouts. You will also need to keep copious notes so be sure to have loose leaf paper or a spiral notebook. You must use pen on all written class work.

Literary Works:

The required works for this class include: William Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet, Mary Shelley's Frankenstein, Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun, and George Orwell's Animal Farm. There will also be additional novels, short stories, poetry and works of non-fiction.

Requirements:

Grades are based on a point system. Students will be made aware of point values for every assignment. Homework is worth up to 4 points. NO LATE HOMEWORK IS ACCEPTED. Quiz grades range from 5-20 points; test grades range from 25-40 points; essay grades range from 25-50 points; projects range from 10-50 points. NO LATE WORK IS ACCEPTED.

Technology and Contact:

Please add our classroom website to your desktop favorites so that you can keep up with classroom assignments. If you have any questions, feel free to contact me at kkrieger@uegw.stier.org .

Our site: <http://www.kriegerland.net>