

Vocabulary Card Parade Day Number One is Thursday, October 18, 2012

Task: Create your little piece of the AP Word Wall

- Select your word from the big list of words that Mrs. Krieger has on her desk. The words are from chapters 1-6 of the vocabulary book. No duplicates, please!
- Decorate your card in a spectacular fashion.

large

- Include the following information: your word (in large print so that it pops off the wall), the part of speech, the definition, a sentence, an amazing visual.
- This wall will be up all year long. People come from near and far just to visit the wall. It is our duty to make it look fabulous. (Seriously, school board members visit the wall; Dr. McLeod visits the wall; other students visit the wall. It's awesome, and I would like to make this year's wall the best ever.)
- Please use the card that I provide you. However, if you have an artistic vision that requires a different medium or approach, I'm good with that. I like to be dazzled.

A few samples from past years