

Short Story Visual

We need to spice up our back wall. Your task is to create an amazing visual. I would prefer that you don't rely on downloaded images. I know that drawing is not everybody's strong point, but there are other ways to be awesome. Think. Think. Think.

Rules:

1. You must exemplify whichever literary element you picked from the bucket in class on Friday.
2. You may use any or all of the three short stories as a backdrop for your image, but you must use at least one of them.
3. You must demonstrate how your literary element works in the short story that you choose.
4. Please be sure to include the literary element somewhere on your visual. For instance, draw THEME in big letters.
5. COVER EVERY INCH OF YOUR PAPER IN COLOR. There is more than one way to accomplish this task.
6. If you have questions, contact me via facebook, Twitter, or email. If you are contacting me for the first time via Twitter or email, be sure to identify yourself so that I know to whom I am speaking.

Facebook: www.facebook.com/mrs.krieger

Twitter: @Kewalee

email: khkrieger@stny.rr.com

