

The Sherman Alexie Postcard Assignment

I will be meeting Sherman Alexie next week at the NCTE Conference in Las Vegas. As part of our unit on The Absolutely True Diary of a Part-Time Indian, we will be writing postcards to Mr. Alexie.

If you recall from the first article that we read by Sherman Alexie, "Superman and Me," Mr. Alexie likes DC Comics. In honor of that first article, I procured a box of vintage DC postcards.

Please select one postcard and write a note to Mr. Alexie in which you describe to him what you liked best about the book or what you learned because of the book. Please be sure to proofread your work.

I will deliver the cards to Mr. Alexie next week. The card is due to me by Thursday, November 15. I am leaving for the conference at 1 PM that day, so please do not forget to hand in your card.
