

Vocabulary Point Recovery Options for English 9 Honors

You have the opportunity to earn back half of the points that you lost on the Animal Farm vocabulary test. You must do all of the following by Monday, March 10

1. Properly define each word that you missed.
2. Show the different forms of the word. (Parts of speech)
3. Write 2 sentences for each word. Each sentence must demonstrate your knowledge of the word. See example below.

Example

Ignominious (adj): marked by disgrace or dishonor
Ignominy (noun): disgrace, dishonor, public contempt
Ignominiously (adverb): marked by disgrace or dishonor

Not acceptable: Napoleon is ignominious.

Acceptable: Napoleon's cruel treatment of the animals showed him to be an ignominious leader.

For the students who received a perfect score, I will award you bonus points if you write a story using at least 10 of the words. Just like the correction sentences, you must use the words in a way that demonstrate your knowledge of the definitions.

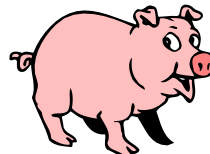

Vocabulary Point Recovery Options for English 9 Honors

You have the opportunity to earn back half of the points that you lost on the Animal Farm vocabulary test. You must do all of the following by Monday, March 10

1. Properly define each word that you missed.
2. Show the different forms of the word. (Parts of speech)
3. Write 2 sentences for each word. Each sentence must demonstrate your knowledge of the word. See example below.

Example

Ignominious (adj): marked by disgrace or dishonor
Ignominy (noun): disgrace, dishonor, public contempt
Ignominiously (adverb): marked by disgrace or dishonor

Not acceptable: Napoleon is ignominious.

Acceptable: Napoleon's cruel treatment of the animals showed him to be an ignominious leader.

For the students who received a perfect score, I will award you bonus points if you write a story using at least 10 of the words. Just like the correction sentences, you must use the words in a way that demonstrate your knowledge of the definitions.