

Extra Credit Opportunity

I would like to give you one final opportunity to bump up your 4th marking period grade for this class. Your task is to answer one of the following questions visually. Of course, you must use the text as the basis for your answer. This is not the GRP. I don't want something enormous; I do want something amazing. Points will vary based on quality. I am open to intriguing ideas.

American Born Chinese

Should anyone who lives in America learn English?

Should we follow family traditions even if those traditions make us unhappy?

What lessons does the text convey about the following issues?

- Bullying
- Culture
- Family

The Absolutely True Diary of a Part-Time Indian

Is dark young adult fiction harmful or beneficial for readers?

Why is this novel so popular with readers?

What can language do?

What lessons do the following situations from the text teach?

- Junior's father pulling the $5 bill out of his boot
- Junior's Rules of Fisticuffs
- The death of Eugene
- The death of Mary Runs Away

