

If money were not an issue, what would you want to do?

Please think carefully about the question above and come up with a list of at least five adventures that speak to your soul. An adventure can be something that you physically do or something that you learn about or something else entirely. Whatever you choose needs to be important to you and only you. Do not worry about what other people write.

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

7.

8.

9.

10.