

- How would you describe the man in London's story?
- How experienced is the man? Is he a novice? Prepared?
- What does the man seem to think of his own abilities?
- How does the man behave in relation to his environment?
- How is the relationship between the man and the dog discussed at first?
- What did the dog instinctively understand that the man did not?
- How does the man and dog's relationship symbolize the man's relationship to his environment?