

2012 UEHS AP English Language and Composition Rhetorical T-Shirt Parade

Task: Teach the entire village of Endicott the importance of rhetorical devices by creating your own rhetorical t-shirt. Of course, you will also need to proudly wear your festive and brilliant new raiment to school in order to receive full credit. Just think about the impact you will be making on humanity through this project. People from Washington Ave. to Bornt Hill Road to Park Manor Blvd. will know that litotes negates an opposite, that satire shines a light on human failings, and that parallel structure is music to our ears.

Paraphernalia: Through a generous DonorsChoose grant, we have enough t-shirts and decorating material for everybody. That said, if you would rather buy your own material, go right ahead. Just remember, looks really do matter. Make your shirt beautiful, neat, accurate, and BOLD!

Due Date: Wednesday, April 4, 2012
