

Create a visual for your character. Please use the paper that I gave you in class so that everybody's poster is equal in size. Due: Friday, December 14, 2012.

Include the following elements:

- character's name
- picture or drawing of the character
- symbols that help to define who the character is
- three adjectives that help to define who the character is (scatter them about)
- at least two quotations that help to define who the character is
- a brief summary of who the character is (2-3 sentences)

Remember that I would like to hang these on the back wall so plan accordingly. Tiny writing is difficult to see. Have fun. Be creative. Think. Think. Think.
