

Identify the sentence types (simple, compound, complex, compound-complex). Be sure to identify the clauses in each sentence and to identify the subjects and verbs.

Because I love you baby, there is no way that I will ever leave you.

Do you love Biebz, or do you hate Biebz?

SJ and Nick love donuts and cookies and cakes and twinkies and skittles and Dr. Pepper.

Diamonds are in the sky even though it is foggy outside and Buzz Lightyear is sleeping.

Not only does Erin draw well, but she also paints well.

Gerunds – Identify each gerund type.

Dora loves playing hockey.

Briana the Giraffe will give snowboarding some serious attention this winter.

Princess Aurora was known for her beautiful dancing and twirling.

Wearing jammie pants is Matt M.'s favorite activity.

Cassie's favorite activity is throwing things at Karleigh.

Infinitives—Identify each infinitive phrase.

To ski the Alps is Andrew's goal.

Manisha wonders what it would be like to sing with Kid Cudi.

Adjective and Adverb Clauses – Identify the clauses and the antecedents.

Landon, the Grammar King, walked slowly by the desk that he liked the best.

Because she loves rice, Shreen will go to the Indian restaurant immediately after school.

Elaine, who is the president of the French club, will be giving a speech at lunch today.

Jackie will read another graphic novel, after she completes the entire Bleach series.