

A compound – complex sentence contains two or more independent clauses and at least one dependent clause.

Since it was not Christmas, Santa did not worry about this year’s toy supply, nor did he tell the elves to work faster.

Amanda did not always enjoy the many hours of practice, but they were necessary because the instrument is so complicated.

Even though Justin Bieber lacks talent, he still sells music, and he makes girls swoon.

