

How are we defined by our experiences?
Great Expectations* Altered Book Assignment
100 Point Project

Objective: Use your book and a variety of artistic media to illustrate your theme statement.

TASKS:

- Develop a theme statement (ex. Man will sacrifice anything for the one he loves.)
- Plan how you will illustrate this theme.
- In addition to your theme statement, you must also demonstrate your understanding of two of the following literary concepts:
 - Metaphor
 - Imagery
 - Symbolism
 - Antagonist/Protagonist
- Experiment with several different artistic styles. Ex. watercolor, scrapbook, collage, pencil, layering, photography.
- Draft your ideas on paper.
- Create the art pieces in the book.
- Write an analysis that explains all of the aspects of the project.

Requirements:

- Sustainable cover that is artfully rendered
- Minimum of three art pieces
- Analysis that accompanies the book that explains the design of the cover, the theme statement, and each of the art pieces included
- Evidence of a variety of art techniques
- Drafts of the art pieces are submitted with the final product

Example Theme Statements:

True courage means doing the right thing no matter what the consequences.

Education allows us to rise above society's expectations.