

Article of the Week Position Paper

Beginning the week of 9/20, Position Papers will be due every Friday. Before that date, we will be working on a few practice papers together in class.

For each paper, you are required to have all of the following elements:

- The article of the week thoroughly highlighted and annotated (5 points)
- A 25-word abstract (5 points)
- Proper APA citation (5 points)
- Position paper of approximately 200-300 words (10 points)
- Position paper must include: your claim, grounds, and backing.

Even though you will be required to hand in your position paper and article each Friday, I will only grade your papers on a rotating basis. On your “off” weeks, you will receive up to 10 points for completeness. On your “on” weeks, you will be graded based on the full requirements.

Schedule:

Periods 1 & 4: 9/20, 10/4, 10/18, 11/1

Periods 6 & 9: 9/27, 10/10, 10/25, 11/8

Argue well.
