

Visual Short Story Project

Your assignment to bring together our four short stories from the past several weeks is as follows: You will create a visual representation of one specific scene or moment from ONE of the four short stories we have read in class:

- Young Goodman Brown, by Nathaniel Hawthorne
  - ❖ The story of a young Puritan's harrowing walk through the Salem woods...
- Rappaccini's Daughter, by Nathaniel Hawthorne
  - ❖ A poisoned garden, a young man and woman in love...what could go wrong?
- The Pit and the Pendulum, by Edgar Allan Poe
  - ❖ The terrifying tale of a man trapped and tortured by the Spanish Inquisition.
- The Fall of the House of Usher, by Edgar Allan Poe
  - ❖ The frightening experiences of a young man who goes to visit a childhood friend who is slowly going mad....

Your visual representation can be a poster, a drawing, a painting, a three dimensional representation, or another visually-based project of your choosing. Be creative! Your project MUST

- Be a visual representation of one scene or moment from one of the stories
- Begin from a specific quote from the text
- Include representations of specific imagery from the text

Your project is due on

